By Program of Historical Association.

At Library Last Night Members of Association Repeated Patriotic Program Carried Out in 1840—Speeches Read by Descendants of Those Who Took Part in Program At That Time—An Interesting Meeting.

It would have been impossible for the Guilford Historical Association to have arranged a more interesting program than was carried out at the regular meeting of the Association in the public library last evening. There was a good attendance of the members of the association and several visitors were present to enjoy the occasion, which was a decided success in every particular. As the major portion of the program was the repetition of speeches made in 1840 it was fitting that these speeches should be read by descendants of the original speakers.

The meeting began at eight o'clock. Col. James T. Morehead, president of the association, presiding. After the reading of the minutes and the treasurer's report the rest of the evening was given to the repeating of a patriotic program of 1840. Mr. A. M. Seales presided and gave the comments and descriptions copied for the Greensboro Patriot of that date.

In Greensboro at that time there were two clubs, the Tippecanoe Club and the Greensborough Guards, and these were preparing to go to Salisbury to attend a Fourth of July celebration. The exercises took place early on the morning of July 2, showing that it required two days to make the trip to Salisbury, the feature of these exercises being the presentation of a banner to each band.

The banner was presented to the Tippecanoe Club by Miss Mary Ann Hove, principal of Edgeworth Female College, the response being by Ralph Gorrell, president of the club. The speech last night was by Miss Lizzie Lindsay and the response by Col. Jas. T. Morehead, descendants of the original speakers. The banner given the Greensborough Guards was presented by Miss Mary C. Morehead and the response was by John A. Gilmer. The speech last night was by Mrs. Bradford Adams, great grand niece of Miss Morehead, and Mr. John A. Gilmer, a grandson of Mr. Gilmer. The society owns these banners and they were displayed in the meeting, having been presented to the society by Mrs. J. E. Logan. They were examined with interest and admiration by the audience.

A campaign song of 1840 was sung by Mrs. Osborn during the evening. The speech and response in connection with the presentation of the banner to the Greensborough Guards follow:

"Gentlemen: We are happy to see a band of our own citizens prepared to show their patriotism, but we are happier still to show our approbation of the zeal which actuates them in this expedition."

"We cannot unite with you in action, but we unite with you in the sentiments of our hearts and ardently wish much success to the cause in which you have engaged. Permit us to express our approbation more fully in offering you a banner, which we have prepared for this occasion. On to Victory! Patriotic Citizens, On to Victory! The bird of liberty is in danger; stay the hand of the spoiler. Under the Eagle's wings alone is our safety. In the far west we have heard there is a chieftain who has magic to draw the dart from the spoiler's hand, and let the captive bird go free."

"For his brow we twine the laurel wreath; he has 'Merit to win the prize.' Shall not many champions arise in Guilford to aid the chieftain's hand, and brace his nerve for the giant deed? Under this chieftain's banner you have enlisted; press on with him until the victory is won."

"You are the protectors of your nation; you are the protectors of your nation's daughters. We tremble for the future; timely to you we turn; you are our safeguards. May Heaven grant success to your efforts, peace to our country, and safety to her sons and daughters."

Which was thus responded to by Mr. John A. Gilmer: "Young Ladies: Great is our happiness at the reception of this expression of your kind partiality and appreciation of the glorious cause in which we are engaged. No good cause can be sustained by the influence of angelic hands, and the prayers of our hearts. We crave leave to tender you our most cordial thanks for this banner. Its designs are suited to our pride and its mottoes to our will. That we will bear it with pride you know—we pledge ourselves not to permit it to be soiled or stained—and earnestly trust that our deportment and conduct may comport with its neatness and beauty, fit emblems of the taste and pure hearts of its givers. We are cheered and invigorated at the sight of that Eagle, which you have emblazoned on the one side, while we are taught on the other that 'the race is not to the swift nor the battle to the strong.' From this however, we take encouragement—confident that if 'merit' is on our side, and looking to the giver of all good for success, we shall press 'On to victory' and 'win the prize.'"

SECOND ATTRACTION TONIGHT

Parland-Newhall Company to Appear At Smith Memorial Building.

The second number of the Greensboro Lyceum Course will be given tonight in the Smith Memorial building when the Parland-Newhall Company will appear before a Greensboro audience for the first time. This promises to be one of the best numbers on the entire program as this company of entertainers have been strongly endorsed by people in every city in which they have appeared.

The program, which will be varied, will be unique and surprisingly beautiful. It will include male quartets, instrumental quartets, bell ringing, vocal and instrumental solos, duets, etc., each feature being of high artistic merit. The concert will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The entertainment was to have been held in the new annex of West Market Street Methodist church, but the heating apparatus was not installed and the place was changed to the Smith Memorial building. There are still a few season tickets on sale, the price being $2 for the six entertainments. Persons desiring season tickets can secure same from Mr. E. Poole or at the door tonight. The regular admission to the entertainment will be 50 cents so it can be seen that season tickets are much cheaper.

A. A. Bolles, of Cleveland, O., said of this company of entertainers: "They gave us the best concert we have ever had and we have had two in every course for the past five years."

THE MARKING OF HISTORIC EVENTS

R. D. W. Connor Compiling Information.

American Historical Association Wants To Know What State Has Done Towards Marking Places Associated With Memorable Events—Mr. Connor Wants Information—Railroad Men Banquet.

Raleigh, Nov. 14.—Being called upon by the American Historical Association for a statement of what North Carolina has done and what remains to be done in the way of marking places in this state associated with memorable events in American history Secretary R. D. W. Connor has prepared a very creditable statement of what has been done and is anxious for people in any part of the state to write him as to any that he has possibly omitted. The request came through Dr. E. E. Sparks, president of State College, Pennsylvania, being a member of a special committee of the American Historical Association to see what can be done by the association to further this work throughout the United States. The states generally are being called upon by this committee for statements similar to that that Mr. Connor is preparing as to North Carolina. Mr. Connor's statement shows the following work in the marking of historic events: The Old Fort at Barterbra, the first settlement of Moravians in this state; the old Salem tavern and the room therein that was occupied by George Washington on his tour of the South; the battlefields of Alamance, Moore's Creek; King's Mountain and Guilford Courthouse; the site of Fort Raleigh on Roanoke Island; the site of the Edenton Tea Party house; the site of Governor Tryon's residence, Russellboro, at Brunswick; the site of the Confederate Navy Yard at Charlotte; markers showing the positions occupied by North Carolina troops at Bethel, Gettysburg, Chancellorsville, and Appomattox; site of Fort Dobbs; Daniel Boone's cabin, Davidson county; site on which stood the house in which the first Assembly ever held in North Carolina met, February, 1665, site of the birthplace of Andrew Jackson; the birthplace of Capt. Otway Burns, the birthplace of James K. Polk; the house in which Andrew Johnson was born.

The Raleigh Division No. 264, Order of Railway Conductors, which has grown from a membership of 13 in 1890 to 115 in 1910, held its annual meeting Sunday afternoon and gave an especially elaborate and notable banquet in connection with it. Among the especially prominent guests of the order for the banquet were Chief Justice Walter Clark, State Treasurer B. R. Lacy, Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman, Col. Chas. E. Johnson, Editor Joseph Daniels, of the Raleigh News and Observer, and other newspaper men. Chief Justice Clark, State Treasurer Lacy, Commissioner Shipman and others talked forcibly of the importance and benefits of the brotherhoods and their interest in and sympathy in their work. Commissioner Shipman especially pledged the best efforts of his department of labor for the furtherance of the best interests of their organization.

The operation of the policies of consolidation of school districts and of transportation by the use of trams, of the children to and from the schools where there are especially remote points in the districts, in the state of Virginia has been the subject of special inspection the past several weeks by Prof. C. L. Brogden, supervisor of elementary schools, for the state department of education. He returns enthusiastic over what Virginia is accomplishing in both these directions, the consolidations on the larger scale being made possible by the system of transportation for children remote from the school house. He found that some counties are expending as much as $4,000 per year for the one item of transportation and are finding it decidedly advantageous to do so. The mountainous, middle and tidewater sections of Virginia came in for investigation and he declares that he returns more than ever confident that this consolidation on a larger scale with the aid of the transportation system for the children can be worked out to decided advantage in this state. It is learned that Wake county some time ago authorized its public school superintendent to apply this transportation experiment in one or more districts but it has not yet been put in operation. It is likely that the legislature will be asked to definitely authorize such a course on the part of county school boards.

STATE TAKING MANY PRIZES

At Horticultural Exhibit in Iowa.

The Display of Fruits and Vegetables At National Exhibition Capturing Large Share of Awards—Reports From Banks Called For—Prof. Brogden, Studies Working of Consolidated School Districts in Virginia.

Raleigh, Nov. 14.—The state department of agriculture has a display of fruits and vegetables at the National Horticultural Exhibit, at Council Bluffs, Iowa, this year under the direction of State Horticulturist W. M. Hutt, and as was the case last season, is capturing a lion's share of the awards. A telegram came today to Commissioner of Agriculture Graham from Mr. Hutt reading as follows: "Judging not yet over, have won already silver trophy valued at $150 for the first award in fruit from the gulf and eastern states; silver loving cup for the first vegetables from the same territory; four gold medals and merchandise prizes; am looking for more to follow."

Reports of the condition of State and savings banks of North Carolina at the close of business November 10 are called for by the North Carolina Corporation Commission, the call going out to 345 banks that are subject to the supervision of the commission. In addition to these banks there are in the state 73 national banks that report to the United States comptroller of the currency.

THE WORK COMMENCED.

Indian Refining Company Putting Asphalt Surface on Greensboro-High Point Road.

Work on the asphalt road between Greensboro and High Point was begun yesterday. The work is to be under the direction of an experienced foreman from the Indian Refining Company.

The contract for the covering, which is to be asphalt, was awarded several months ago by the county commissioners. It is their purpose to have all the county roads so protected, provided the work now being done proves satisfactory.

The road is to be torn up for a distance of ten miles and the gravel removed to a depth of several inches, after which the asphalt is to be laid, which covering makes the road smooth and prevents those ruts which are so annoying in an ordinary crushed rock surface. Wherever the work has been done properly, this asphalt surface has proved a boon to farmers and automobilists, and it is thought that the expenditure for this improvement will in the end be an economic investment. The cost to the county will be $700 per mile, and the Indian Refining Company guarantees the work under bond to last seven years.

CASES IN MUNICIPAL COURT.

Somewhat Lengthy Session Held Yesterday Morning by Judge Eure.

Yesterday morning's session of Municipal Court was somewhat lengthy, there being several cases on the docket awaiting disposal before Judge Eure.

Ike Hall, of the colored persuasion, received the major portion of the court's attention, being up in two cases. Hall and Sam Crow, also colored, were arraigned on the charge of gambling. After hearing the evidence Judge Eure held that they were guilty, each being given 60 days on the county roads for their offense. Neither liked the thought of digging dirt in cold weather so they appealed. Bond for their appearance was fixed at $50 each, which was given. Hall was also charged with totin' a pistol, being sentenced to serve ninety days on the roads, this sentence to begin at the expiration of his first sentence. Ike appealed in this case also, bond being fixed at $50.

Joe Stroud was arraigned on the charge of assault, being let off on payment of the costs.

Hugh Bloomfield was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

Brownie Evans was charged with false pretense, but was acquitted of the charge.

Joe Cain was given 60 days on the roads for gambling.

WORK OF PAST YEAR REVIEWED

Presiding Elder Ware Has Fine Report.

Greensboro District Will Make Most Creditable Showing At Methodist Conference, Which Convenes in Winston Tomorrow—Two Churches Built, Seven Repaired and Improved—Over Nine Hundred Members Added During Year.

The report that will be made by Presiding Elder Rev. W. R. Ware, of the Greensboro district, at the Western N. C. Methodist conference, which convenes in Winston-Salem tomorrow, will be one of the best, if not the best, every sent up from this district. Two churches have been built, seven repaired or improved, one parsonage purchased and four enlarged. More than nine hundred members have been added, making a total of 9,800 in the district. The total amount of money raised for all purposes was $56,147.

There are 68 churches in the district, served by 22 pastors. The new churches built since last conference were West Bend, a mission of Asheboro station, and Robotham on the Coleridge circuit. The churches enlarged and improved are West Market, the $25,000 Sunday school annex being just completed; Washington Street, High Point; Ramseur, Mt. Shepherd on Uwarrie circuit, Mt. Carmel on Wentworth circuit, Mt. Tabor on Denton circuit, Denton.

The parsonages added and improved are, Centenary, which has purchased a parsonage on Arlington street costing $4,500; West Greensboro circuit, Ramseur and Franklinton, Randeman and Trinity.

The report will show that 97 and 1-2 per cent of the pastors' salaries and 95 and 1-2 per cent of the missionary and other benevolent collections have been paid. This, considering the financial stringency, is regarded as a most excellent showing. In addition to the regular Sunday school contributions for this purpose $2,864 was raised by special offering for the Children's Home in Winston. For other special purposes $14,667 was raised, this making a total for all purposes of $56,147.

During the year 565 members were added on profession of faith and 346 by certificate, a total of 911. The total membership in the district is at present 9,800.

Rev. Dr. Ware will leave this morning for Winston. This afternoon Bishop Hendrix will meet with the presiding elders of the conference for the purpose of nominating committees and mapping out the order of business. Tonight the presiding elders and the Board of Missions will meet.

The sessions of the conference will be held in Centenary church, Winston. The conference met in Winston just 12 years ago.

SNAPSHOT OF A GHOST.

Prof. Wm. James' Spirit Claimed to Have Been Photographed.

New York, Nov. 12.—Prof. William James, who, at the time of his death, three months ago, was instructor in psychology in Harvard University, and who said just before he died that he would after death try to get into communication with the material world, has appeared in the spirit and has been photographed by Soren Lindgren, a resident of the Bronx according to a statement by the latter.

Mr. Lindgren, who is a professional photographer, is the son of a Swedish clergyman, and although not a member of any society for physical research, has, since a boy, he says, been in communication with spirits and declares he owes his life to a warning communicated to him some years ago by what he calls "the lady in white," who is his personal guardian.

Mr. Lindgren was at work in the dark room of his studio developing pictures three weeks ago, when he felt, he says, a strange sense of another presence in the room, and on looking around could see a wraith slowly taking form, but the lines never became distinct. But almost every day thereafter, he said, the wraith was present. His efforts to engage it in conversation were futile until Thursday, November 5, when he said he asked:

"Are you Professor James?"

The answer was "Yes," and Mr. Lindgren asked the spirit of the Professor if he would pose for a picture.

"Not here," was the reply, according to Mr. Lindgren. "I will see you at your house tomorrow night at 8 o'clock."

Mr. Lindgren says the Professor didn't keep the appointment, but Lindgren was not discouraged. He prepared for the coming of the spirit the next night. He brought to his home a dozen dry plates in their original package, and at his request they were opened by a friend of his wife, Miss Alva Franson, who put them in the plateholders in the darkened room. Mr. Lindgren had asked her to do that because she had hinted at photographic trickery.

The camera containing the plate was on the edge of the dining-room table, at which Mr. and Mrs. Lindgren and Miss Franson were seated, when Mr. Lindgren, looking toward the living room, saw the wraith forming. He went into the room and extinguished the gas light, then went to the dining-room and exposed the camera plate.

Mr. Lindgren says that it was his purpose after getting the photograph, which he deemed most important, to engage the spirit in conversation, but before he could do so it vanished. When asked what the spirit looked like Mr. Lindgren gave a fairly accurate description of Professor James as he appeared in life.

SAVED FROM A TRAP

By EMMA D. TOWNE

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

The border line between Italy and Switzerland in several places crosses those beautiful lakes of northern Italy which are the resort of people from all over the world. The Italian customs officers are constantly on the alert to intercept smugglers.

One evening a postman was climbing one of the steep mountain roads that lead up toward the border line when he was accosted by a man with a stubble beard and small, cunning eyes.

"Anything for Antoinette Cavalleri?" he asked the postman.

The postman took a package of letters from his bag and looked over their superscriptions.

"Nothing for Cavalleri," he said and was about to return the letters to the bag when the man made a grab for one of them, seized it and ran away with it. The postman was at a disadvantage. His letter bag was so heavy that he could not hope to catch the letter thief while it was strapped to his back, and he dare not lay it down. He would not risk a large number of letters to recover one. He hurried a stone after the thief to vent his ire and kept on his way. He had not gone far before he met a young girl coming down to meet him.

"A letter for me today, Luigi?"

"Yes; there is one, I believe."

He looked over the letters, but found none for the girl. "I was sure there was one," he said. Then he stopped and thought, saying half to himself and half to her, "I wonder if that was the letter the rascal robbed me of?" He was looking at his companion and saw that she paled.

"Have you been robbed of a letter?" she asked quickly.

"Yes."

"By a thickset man with a short beard and eyes like a snake's?"

"The same. He asked for a letter for Antoinette Cavalleri, and while I was looking over the lot made a grab for one and ran away with it. But what is it, Marie?"

"Oh, Luigi, Giovanni and his friends will be taken! The man who stole the letter was a customs official. It contains the hour and the place where they are tonight to run some goods over the border. This letter was addressed to me to deceive the revenue officers. This man has been told that I am the medium between the Swiss and Italian bands who are acting together—Giovanni and his friend collecting the goods in Switzerland and turning them over to the Italians, who run them across the lake. Giovanni sent it to me to deliver to Toni."

"But is there not time to warn them?"

"I don't know where either party is or the trysting place. That is given in the letter. Which way did he go?"

"He took the valley road up the mountain."

"I will go and seek him myself. He knows that a girl named Marie Polini is the go-between for these letters, but he has never seen me."

An hour later the letter thief was sitting under an arbor outside an Italian inn drinking a glass of wine and smoking a cigarette. Marie, who was ascending the road, saw him, and, taking a byroad—all roads in that country run through high stone walls—she entered the inn unseen by a back door. She knew well the people who lived there; they were friendly to her and the smugglers—indeed, friendly to any one who is interested in getting a living out of the two sources of income open to impoverished Italians, the government and Americans, though the flow of coin is usually to the government, while it is always from the Americans. She told them the story and her purpose. Going out to the official, she said, with a smile:

"Did the senore call for more wine?"

"I did not, but if so pretty a maid will drink it with me I will have a liter."

The girl brought the wine and modestly stood till the man asked her to be seated; then, showing her white teeth in a smile and darting her Italian black eyes at him, she took the glass of wine he poured for her and sipped it. The customs officer drained his own glass and refilled it.

A knowledge of drugs that will kill or stupefy has been handed down among the Italians since the days of the Borgias. Before bringing the wine Marie had slipped a powder into it, and the man had scarcely drunk when his eyes grew heavy. They closed, and, the pretty face of Marie, which now wore a smile of triumph, faded before him. As soon as he became unconscious she unbuttoned his coat, took the letter he had stolen from the postman, looked at the superscription and, seeing that it was for her, opened and read it.

Taking up the bottle containing the balance of the wine, she poured it on the ground, then, leaving the officer to sleep off the effect of the drug she had given him started up the mountain. It was growing dark when she came upon a man leaning on a stone wall, looking or pretending to look down upon a water course far below. As soon as he saw the girl his face brightened.

"Marie," he exclaimed, "what has delayed you?"

"That has delayed me which would have led to your capture tonight." And she told him what had happened. "Ah, Marie," he exclaimed, embracing her, "how could we get on without you?"

There is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Bandruif germs do not exist, their belief is completely by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time. It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ— which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide. It is agreeable to know that the ex-governor's strike has been called off. The time of peace and good will is approaching and at such a time it is desirable that peace of all sorts shall reign, if only temporarily.

The Telegram has always counseled early Christmas shopping and it still very earnestly believes that the practice is better for the merchant, better for the buyer and better for the salespeople. Procrastination is always a bad practice and it is worst of all in connection with Christmas shopping.

There never was a year when Princeton could suffer a defeat at football with better grace. With its former president elected Governor of New Jersey by an overwhelming plurality and being spoken of as a suitable man for the Democrats to nominate for President of the United States in 1912, Princeton has glory enough.

It turns out that that mistaken forecast of the Charlotte Observer was a case of Homer nodding and literally at that. Says the Observer:

Some of our contemporaries will be interested in knowing that The Observer's news editor was very sleepy when he wrote that forecast—which was very different from the one it had been understood he would write.

Several months ago William Randolph Hearst said:

The Democratic party is at sea in the South, on the rocks in the West and stuck fast in the Tammany mud in New York. It is a derelict and has about as much chance of drifting into a safe port as has any other derelict.

Assuming that he was right in his diagnosis of the condition of the Democratic party, Mr. Hearst declared, "Principles are everything; party names are nothing."

The New York World contended at the time that Mr. Hearst was wrong in every assertion that he made and the election showed that Mr. Hearst was wrong. To quote the World in support of the contention that party names are something and that the name "Democracy" is a great, big something:

Any party that has the right to blazon the name Democracy on its standards, to print on its ballots and to summon support by its platforms will always have a strong following to appeal to. The present party has more than five million voters ready to go to the polls with an equal loyalty for such contrasted leaders as Cleveland and Bryan. Nor has it lost its faith in the creed of Jefferson. Nor has it lost the sense of its mission to preserve the Constitution. It is still the only practical organization that professes to guard the authority of Congress against Executive usurpation, the powers of the states against centralized aggression, and the rights of the people against the double menace of a greedy plutocracy on the one side and a demagogic dictatorship on the other. With such a tradition behind it and such a following around it, the name of Democracy is one of the most potent of political forces. It cannot become an empty word. Nor will the political ship which bears that name become a derelict.

Events have proved that the World was right. So far from becoming a derelict, the Democratic ship has become the biggest, best and swiftest ship afloat. All good citizens, get aboard.

The Asheville Gazette-News says that it is an independent newspaper. When it first set up this claim, there were those who were skeptical about it, its editor having been generally regarded as a dyed-in-the-wool Republican. But in the campaign just closed, the Gazette-News gave proof of its independence by cutting loose from its party and waging a vigorous warfare for the defeat of the Republican party and the overthrow of Butler. The vigor and effectiveness with which it carried on this warfare elicited the following letter from Mr. J. P. Kerr, a prominent Democrat of Asheville, who was himself formerly a newspaper man: I desire to publicly express my appreciation of the very great service your paper rendered the county of Buncombe and the state of North Carolina by the attitude you assumed in the political contest just closed. I know of no paper that has done more intelligent or more effective work during my 35 years experience in the politics of this state. It also affords me very great pleasure to be able to assure you that my feelings in this regard are participated in by practically every man with whom I have come in contact whose opinion would be prized. And these feelings are not altogether based upon the fact that what you have done happened to inure to the advantage of the Democratic party. It rests upon a more exalted plane than this. Your fight was for a higher type of political ethics in North Carolina—for cleaner and worthier men and for more honest and straightforward dealing with the people by political parties.

I also wish to commend The Gazette-News for refusing to fill its columns with whiskey advertisements. I think I know enough about the newspaper business to appreciate more fully than the average man just what this attitude means. I am sure that whiskey advertisements could be more easily gotten and, if demanded, better prices could be secured for them than for almost any other line of business. Their absence from your columns shows that you not only have a decent regard for the sentiments of the people of this town as expressed at the ballot box, but it shows that this regard outweighs the dollars you might easily gather in ignoring it. I know of no other establishment in this city that has made a similar sacrifice, and I am glad to say thus publicly that I for one appreciate it.

Thanksgiving Day—Orphans' Day.

The work of the orphanages of North Carolina appeals most strongly to reason and to sympathy. These institutions are worthy of the heartiest support of our people and they have a large place in their interest and gifts and efforts.

At the Thanksgiving season minds and hearts turn especially toward our orphanages and many are the practical expressions of gratitude made to this cause by a people richly blessed.

These love-prompted gifts to carry on this blessed work with these little ones surely must be acceptable to God, the Father of the fatherless.

It seems that, here in North Carolina, Thanksgiving Day has been specially set apart as "Orphans' Day" and we rejoice that this is true. The contributions made at this season help very much indeed in the support of our various orphanages.

We trust that even larger offerings will be made at this Thanksgiving season than ever before to the end that these institutions may be the better able to perform their service. They need funds for maintenance, for improvement and for the extension of the work.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Big Deal Which Means Much to Lynchburg

and The Entire South

Lynchburg, Nov. 14.—An agreement has been entered into, whereby Craddock-Terry Company will acquire a controlling interest in the Geo. D. Witt Shoe Company, January 1.

This deal is in no sense "a combination in restraint of trade," but is a very important move looking to the further development of the shoe industry of Lynchburg.

The Craddock-Terry Company and the Geo. D. Witt Shoe Company have made wonderful progress in shoe manufacturing, but in order to get the best results, in order to produce the best shoes at the lowest prices, shoes of each grade and kind should be manufactured in a separate factory, and by consolidating the factories of both Companies under practically one management, making in each factory the grade and kind of shoes which can be produced to the best advantage, it will enable both companies to make a great improvement in the quality, and a material saving in the cost of the shoes sold by both Craddock-Terry Company and by the Geo. D. Witt Shoe Company, and will naturally increase the rapidly growing demand for Lynchburg-made shoes.

Craddock-Terry Company have long enjoyed the reputation of being the largest manufacturers of shoes in the South, but this deal puts them in a class with the largest manufacturers in their line in the world and it makes Lynchburg a big factor in the world's commerce so far as shoes are concerned.

While Geo. D. Witt retires from the active management of the business of which he is now president, he will leave his money in this business in the shape of preferred stock, and the Geo. D. Witt Shoe Company will continue as heretofore, a corporation separate and distinct from Craddock-Terry Company, retaining most of the men who are now at the head of the various departments and practically all of the travelling men, under the general supervision of T. M. Terry, as president.

Under this new deal, all of the shoe factories of Lynchburg (except one) will be under practically the same management, which means that more shoes will be manufactured in Lynchburg next year than ever before; in fact, Craddock-Terry Company alone will manufacture more shoes than all of their Southern competitors combined, and Lynchburg will stand in a class by herself, as "The Shoe Market of the South," and one of the greatest shoe markets in the world.

This announcement will be of great interest to the shoe trade all over the United States, as both of these progressive manufacturers enjoyed a patronage in almost every state in the Union, having enlarged the territory in which they operate year by year, until now Lynchburg made shoes find a ready market in the largest cities of the South, East, North and West.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY WINS HANDSOME SILK BANNER

Presented by the Democracy of the Fifth Congressional District.

The Democracy of the Fifth Congressional district is to be congratulated upon the magnificent victory which has just been won. From time to time the unofficial majorities in the several counties have been printed. It was impossible to get the correct vote in all of the counties until the meeting of the Board of Canvassers. The official vote in the counties of the district show a majority of 3362. The majorities in the several counties are as follows:

Alamance	312	Stedman	Blair
Caswell	499
Durham	692
Forsyth	323
Granville	999
Guilford	1187
Orange	230
Person	66
Rockingham	649
Stokes	413
Surry	536

Totals 4634 1272
By reference to the vote of this district in 1908 it will be seen that there were some very radical changes, especially in the counties of Alamance, Durham, Guilford, Rockingham and Surry. In 1908 we lost Alamance county by 37 votes. This year we regained it by a majority of 312. In 1908 we carried Durham by 20 votes. This year we carry it by 692 votes, a change of 672 votes in our favor. In 1908 we lost Orange by 64 votes. We carry Orange this time by 230, making a change of 294 votes. We lost Person in 1908 by 180 votes. We regained Person in this election with a majority of 66 votes, making a change of 249 votes in our favor. We lost Stokes at the last election by 681 votes. At this election we make a gain of 268 votes in Stokes county. In 1908 we lost Surry county by 1001. At this election Blair carried the county by 536 votes only, making a net gain in our favor of 465 votes. It will be seen that we gained in Stokes and Surry 733 votes at this election over 1908. The largest gains were made in Rockingham county, which we lost in 1902 by 213 votes. We carried the county at this election by 649, making a change in our favor of 862 votes in Rockingham county.

This of course gives the banner to Rockingham county. As I have stated before, a citizen of Greensboro offered, on behalf of the Democracy of the District a silk banner to the county making the largest Democratic gain.

The inscription on the banner will be as follows: "1910. Rockingham the banner County Presented by the Democracy of the Fifth Congressional District."

I desire to acknowledge my indebtedness to the press of this district and the News and Observer of Raleigh, to the County Chairman of each of the counties of the district, to the Precinct Chairman in each of the townships of this district, and the friends of Major Stedman and leaders and workers of the party who have stood together as a unit in this election.

While the duties devolving upon me were exacting and the labor of the campaign exceedingly heavy, yet the willingness with which the Democrats of the district, and especially of Guilford county, performed the most trivial services requested, and the consideration shown me at all times made the task one which I shall always recollect with pleasure.

A. WAYLAND COOKE,

Chairman Democratic Cong. Ex. Com. Fifth District. Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 14, 1910.

The vaudeville stage has developed musical comedies of great merit in short acts. Take for instance the music in Jesse Laskey's production "On the House-top." The musical is famous. The very best song in the act is "Annette," and The New York World has secured it from Harry Von Tilzer and will publish it, words and music complete, free with next Sunday's World. Get it and try it on your piano.

FIRST BUSINESS MEETING ARTS AND CRAFTS SOCIETY

A Most Interesting Report Made To the National Convention.

The Arts and Crafts Society held the first business meeting for this winter Friday night in Carnegie Library. As the meeting was to be followed by a lecture the business was of necessity greatly condensed. A new by-law was found necessary—that was "That all members must pay their annual dues before Dec. 15 as the 'executive committee' finds it impossible to know how much funds can be counted upon until all is paid in."

A most interesting report was made by Mrs. W. G. Potter, the representative from the Greensboro Arts and Crafts Society to the National Convention of Handicraft Leagues, which convened in Chicago this year. She spoke charmingly of the Tuesday afternoon session which was held at the Hull house, after an enjoyable address by Miss Jane Adams. The delegates were shown over the Hull house to witness the women weaving, sewing, cooking, etc. She also spoke of an after dinner address by Dr. Frank Gunsarbus, who congratulated all interested in the handicraft effort, saying "the supremacy of the Germans in Europe and the Japanese in the East was entirely due to their training in handicraft, and that they made the Americans look like a nation of thumbs." The next meeting of the National League will be in Boston, June, 1911.

The Greensboro shop on West Market street reported the receipt of a number of beautiful things for sale. Also a large assignment of hand made laces to be sold this month. These laces are in shape of neat handkerchiefs, from 25c to several dollars. Also collars, cuffs, berthas, yokes, etc., all beautiful enough for gifts for a queen. The shop is open every Tuesday and Saturday afternoons in November. All the citizens should grasp this opportunity of inspecting this beautiful display.

The business being over the members adjourned to the assembly room where a good sized audience awaited Dr. Stephen B. Weeks, who was to address them on the "Indians of the Southwest." Already the room was decorated with his Indian curios, handwork of the three tribes he was to speak of, and maps which he used in the beginning of his address to show the location of the Indian reservations. In his introductory remarks Dr. Weeks spoke of the general ignorance of the eastern people in regard to the Indian; also pointed out the work of the government for the Indians, their schools, saying that "Indians do not wish to be educated, or civilized according to the white man's ideas but only desire to be let alone." Whether consciously or unconsciously the doctor pointed out that forcing the Indians into unwilling educational methods was very nearly a waste of time and only as we encourage him in his handicraft work and allow him to advance along his own lines by patronizing his best efforts and insist on his best work, only thus can we do our full duty according to the Golden Rule. The Pueblo is the only tribe of the southwest showing any love for agriculture. He also showed interesting pottery made by them. The Navajo are weavers as well as metal workers, while the Apache excel in basket weaving and metal work.

Dr. Weeks illustrated each part of his address by exhibiting the pottery, blankets and baskets woven by these tribes, and his audience left feeling far better acquainted with the red men of the West than ever before. We hope we may have Dr. Weeks with us again.

THE ADVICE OF A FRIEND

Given to Those Who Need it.

San Francisco, Cal.—To anyone who is run-down or who needs a good blood purifier, I want to recommend Vinol the great cod liver and iron tonic. I was run-down, feeling badly and only weighed about 140 pounds. I took a course of Vinol—it purified my blood, gave me a fine appetite, and built me right up. Now I am well and strong, weigh about 175 pounds, and, in fact, never felt better in my life." John S. Charles, 3264 17th St., San Francisco, Cal. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol is a delicious combination of the health-giving properties of the cod's liver, with the grease eliminated, and tonic iron added, blended in a mild medicinal wine.

If your blood is poor or sluggish, your appetite poor, your digestion weak or your vitality not up to the standard, or if you are suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchial troubles, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. It could not do what all these people claim it did for them if it were not honest. Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—It cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

TO MIND ONE'S BUSINESS.

Economic Issues to be Resolved by Society With Unique Name. North American Review.

This truth is becoming evident to a few, and those who are awaking to it are instituting a much needed change of philanthropic base. They have been awakened to the necessity of a decentralized movement in social effort. Instead of joining the cry of "back to the soil" they are pondering means to keep their neighbors on the soil by transplanting to it what the human plants need. The first step in this new social effort is to recognize that in the country some of the advantages of the city must be afforded. The next, that concerted effort can achieve more than is within the power of any individual, and that the banded efforts of the countryside richly applied will secure for the dwellers there the most desirable opportunities of city life. These leagues have been called by various names, but perhaps the most proper title would be "Societies for Minding Our Own Business."

One early member of a neighborhood league thus defined the appositeness of this sub-title: "What is our own business? Why, to see that our taxes are properly spent; that the elected officials do their duty; that our roads are kept in order; the public health guarded; the laws obeyed; the schools maintained at a high standard; the beauty of the countryside preserved and increased, and that everyone of us has an opportunity for healthful pleasure."

Hexamethylenetetramine.

Is the name of a German chemical, one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and anti-septic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy promptly at the first sign of kidney trouble and avoid a serious malady. Howard Gardner.

A Household Medicine.

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Howard Gardner.

Many a woman who thinks she is the salt of the earth should remember Lot's wife.

How Eggs Are Hatched in China. There is in China a curious method of hatching eggs. First the eggs are placed in tiers in a large basket, twice the size of an ordinary barrel, which is thickly lined with hay and carefully closed from the air by a tight fitting cover of twisted straw. In three days' time the eggs are taken out and replaced in a different order, those at the surface being put in the lower tier. This is repeated every third day for a fortnight, when the eggs are removed from the basket and placed on a shelf in another room, being carefully covered with bran. In a day or two the chickens chip the shells and make their appearance into the world. The success of this method is attributed to the fact that the animal heat of the egg, being retained by the basket, which is formed of material not conducting caloric, is sufficient to support animal life and develop it.—Detroit Free Press.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friend hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. What Could the Boy Do?

"What's a dilemma?" asked one small boy. "Well," replied the other, "it's something like this: If your father says he'll punish you if you don't let your mother cut your hair, that's a dilemma."—Washington Star.

ORIGIN OF LLOYD'S.

Humble Beginning of Europe's Great Maritime Agency.

Two centuries ago a man who had a cargo to send to the Mediterranean contrived to get rid of some of the risk by inducing a friend to take an interest with him. It was necessary to write out a statement of contract to which the guarantors subscribed. This was the first underwriting. These two men happened to be frequenters of Lloyd's coffee house in London, which was a favorite place for the merchants of the town to gather to discuss business or to gossip. Others immediately saw the advantage of the scheme which their colleagues had devised, and on the next voyage the risk was parceled out among a larger number of the patrons of the coffee house.

Out of this small beginning has grown the great European maritime agency, still bearing the name of the humble coffee house proprietor, and which not only writes risks on vessels, but rates them and publishes their arrivals at every port the world over, no matter how small or how remote—situated.—Annals of the American Academy.

Incompatibility of Attire.

"The suffragettes claim to be making immense strides." "Then they are not evidently wearing the hobble skirt."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

MEMBERS OF A HUNDRED CLUBS.

Mrs. Todd Helmuth Wears Over $10,000 Worth of Badges.

Ethel Lloyd Patterson, in the New York Evening World.

Some women belong to one club. A few belong to many clubs. Only one in all this world belongs to 100 clubs. This woman is Mrs. William Todd Helmuth, one time president of Sorosis and the State Federation and at present active in a dozen different organizations.

There are people who might think membership in 100 clubs was an empty glory. For the benefit of these it may be as well to explain that the collection of insignia which Mrs. Helmuth sometimes wears on a broad, white sash has been valued at $10,000. The Sorosis medal alone—a letter "S," made entirely of diamonds—must be worth about $500. The last club of which Mrs. Helmuth was made an honorary member, thus completing the even 100, is the Sydney Women's Club of Australia. The reverberations of this crowning glory had sent me forth to see and hear about it.

"But the medals are worth far more than $10,000 to me," she explained, "and the knowledge I have gained through my club life is worth more than the medals."

"What has club life taught you?" I asked.

"Three things. Club life has taught me the value of gentleness, generosity and justice. And the greatest of these is justice. Almost anyone can be gentle or generous if they only try, but it means something to be just. One of the best things that can happen to a selfish, self-centered woman is to join one of our good modern clubs."

"The club teaches her restraint—that there are other opinions in the world as worthy of consideration as her own. It teaches her to listen to what other women have to say. Club life is one of the few broadening influences a sheltered woman may have."

THE MIDDLE AGED MAN.

Finding Happiness in a Life That to Youth is Iridescent.

"Younger people," said the middle aged man, "want variety. They want to be always on the go. Routine galls them. They hate to have to do the same thing over and over and over again day after day."

"They want to go somewhere or do something different all the time. Older people are happiest in a life of routine, most disturbed when variety is thrust upon them."

"For myself I welcome my daily task, endlessly repeated and always the same. I should be lost without it; disturbed if it were changed. A life of habit suits me best. I like the old scenes—familiar friendly surroundings. I don't want to change."

"Nor do I want much outside pleasure. In fact, I think I should be best suited with none. I like my groove. It fits me, and I fit it. I don't want change. I just want to be left alone to work in my accustomed ways. It is in my groove that I am most comfortable. I like a life of labor and routine."

"And could there come to one a greater blessing? Nature and the customs of men enforce routine upon us whether we like it or not. In youth this irks us, but in our maturer years in a life of routine, in the undisturbed enjoyment of familiar labor, we may find our greatest happiness."—New York Sun.

Both Speedy and Effective. This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

Aids Nature

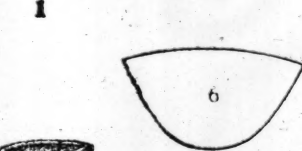

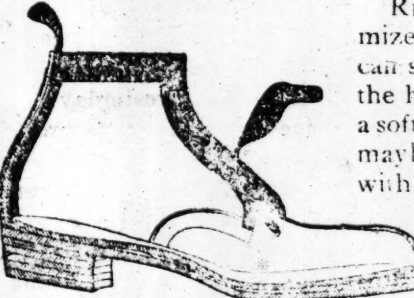

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

SHOE MAKING FACTS

CRADDOCK

Soles — Counters — Heels

The life of any shoe depends on the integrity of the outer sole, the inner sole, the counter and the heel. No matter how handsome a shoe looks on the outside, or how well it feels on the foot—if the vitals are cheapened the whole shoe is weakened.

Right here is where many makers economize. No one can see the insole—no one can see the counter—no one can see any of the heel but the top lift—so they substitute a soft, spongy, flake leather for the insole and maybe use a counter made of canvas stiffened with glue and scraps of leather for the heel.

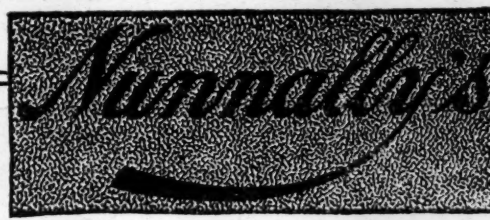

If there's any one virtue about the Craddock Shoe that is more pronounced than any other—it is the foundation. We have spared nothing to get the best. The sole (4) is the first grade of old method tanned steer's hide. The insole (5) is a slightly lighter piece of the same stock, selected for smoothness, pliability and toughness. Craddock counters (3) are cut from stout grain leather; each is a single piece. Craddock heels are solid all through. The top lift alone costs more than the whole heel of some shoes of equal price.

We've made every vital part strong. How we carefully cut and fit the vamp and tops of fine, fine leather is another story.

The Craddock dealer in your town will tell you all about it. We shall tell it in type shortly. Watch for it.

Make Up Your "List"

Christmas is drawing very near. No use waiting until the eleventh hour. Make up your list today. Jot down the names of all to whom you intend to make presents. That done, mark down what you desire to give them.

Then select every day one or two presents. A small deposit will secure them for you. They will be laid aside until the day before Christmas.

A look at the show windows and the store proper will aid in making selections. Come whenever you like, and as often as you please. We will be very glad to show you around. You will never be urged to buy.

You will probably give at least one watch. By buying it here you will save enough so that for the difference you can secure a very good chain to attach to it.

There will surely be some one to whom you will want to give a ring, to others bracelets, lockets and scarf pins, brooches and studs. For still others you will want little trinkets in silver novelties.

PROPOSED NEW COUNTY

High Point Agitating Vigorously For It.

High Point is agitating vigorously for a new county with itself as county seat. The Enterprise says:

"High Point, Thomasville, Trinity, Jamestown and other communities who have signified their desire to be a part of the proposed new county are ready for the proposition."

"This is an unselfish proposition and every man within the limits of the proposed new county can afford to bury all differences and join hands and work to one common end."

"We believe that when our proposition is put before the legislature there can be no objection to it. The people within the territory have proven their faith by their works on all occasions and instead of opposing this movement we believe that the state will take a pleasure in giving such an expression of their pride and faith in communities which have done so much for the state and themselves in so short a time. And it has been done under difficulties which the people now desire to overcome. We simply ask for the opportunity of building the best and richest county in the state, one to which every member of the legislature may point with pride afterwards."

A county in which every man, woman and child will be busy with its factories, farms and schools. The new county will have more factories in it than any county in the South."

Sunday School Conference Planned—To Aid in Campaign For Early Shopping.

The Ministers' Association met yesterday at 11 a. m. in Mr. Ireland's Bible class room to arrange for a Sunday School Conference to be held on December 6 and 7. Mr. J. Following are the names of those appointed as a committee of arrangements: C. C. McLean, chairman; J. L. Spencer, C. A. Davis, H. C. Simpson, S. L. Alderman, C. D. Roberts, T. A. Hunter, E. W. Copeland.

Miss Cain appeared before the association to present the matter of urging early shopping before and during the holiday season and asked for the co-operation of the ministers present, who responded gladly, promising to bring the matter before their congregations.

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.
